

Notes:

Keys of songs

You will notice that many songs are built around the key of G and D. This is intentional. While you may already know certain songs in F or C, I have found that more beginning guitar players are able to play in G and D. To be more inclusive to the music position, (and to cause less stress to the music leaders), most songs have been arranged in these common keys. This ultimately allows music leaders to play the majority of this book by knowing G, C, D, Em, A, and Bm.

Parentheses

Some songs have chords in parentheses. See example below:

C(G) Am(Em) F(C) G(D)
Shout to the Lord all the earth, let us sing,

These chords are not optional. They are there to represent another key that may be better suited to men. In the above example, 'Shout to the Lord' works well in the key of C for women. Men prefer this song in G.

I have found (for the most part) that the keys for men work well enough when men and women are together.

Mistakes

More than likely, there are mistakes. I have tried to play everything in this book over the course of many Chrysalis and Emmaus weekends. That doesn't mean that I remember to correct all the mistakes I find.

If you find a mistake, please email me the song, the mistake, and the suggested correction. I will verify and make the correction in the next revision of the book. You can email me at chris@prodigalband.org.

Additional Songs

I try to stay on top of current songs and trends and will add new songs based on what I hear is being used.

If you have a song that you would like to add, please email me and let me know. You can email me at chris@prodigalband.org. If you can provide the exact title and copyright info, I can verify that we can use it, and put it in the next revision of the book. Please keep in mind that some songs may be particular to a specific theme of a weekend and may not be used all that often.

1. Before the throne of God above,
(D) F#m
I have a strong, a perfect plea,
G D A Bm

My name is written on His heart;

I know that while in heav'n He stands
G Bm
No tounge can bid me thence depart.
G A D
No tounge can bid me thence depart.

2. When Satan tempts me to despair,
and tells me of the guilt within,
upward I look and see Him there who made an end to all my sin.
Because the sinless Savior dies,
My sinful soul is counted free;
For God, the Just, is satisfied
To look on Him and pardon me.
To look on Him and pardon me.

3. Behold Him there! The risen Lamb,
my perfect, spotless Righteousness,
the great unchangeable I AM,
the King of glory and of grace!
One with Himself I cannot die,
My soul is purchased by His blood;
My life is hid with Christ on high,
With Christ, my Savior and my God
With Christ, my Savior and my God

COME THOU FOUNT OF EVERY BLESSING

C G
Come Thou Fount of every blessing,
F C
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
G C G
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
F C
Call for songs of loudest praise.
G C
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
G C
Sung by flaming tongues above;
G C G
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it,
F C
Mount of Thy redeeming love.

Here I raise my "Ebenezer"
Hither by Thy help I come.
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood.

Oh, to grace how great a debtor,
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let Thy good ness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it,
Seal it for Thy courts above.

And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze... (refrain)

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin... (refrain)

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, my God how great Thou art! (refrain)

VICTORY IN JESUS

1. I heard an old, old story, how a Savior came from glory,
How He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me.
I heard about His groaning, of His precious blood's atoning,
Then I repented of my sins and won the victory.

(Refrain) O, victory in Jesus, my Savior, forever,
He sought me and bought me, with His redeeming blood,
He loved me 'ere I knew Him, and all my love is due Him,
He plunged me to victory, beneath the cleansing flood.

2. I heard about His healing, of His cleansing pow'r revealing,
How he made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see,
And then I cried "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit,"
And somehow Jesus came and brought to me the victory.

(Refrain)

3. I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory,
And I heard about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea,
About the angels singing, and the old redemption story,
And some sweet day I'll sing up there the song of victory.

(Refrain)

WE ARE HUNGRY

Can we find a friend so faithful, Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness, Take it to the Lord in prayer.
